

Mobilities and bodies at play

17 – 18 October, 2017

Vila-seca, Spain

Programme

17th October 2017

14.00 – Arrival and registration

14.45 – Opening session and Welcome by SIG coordinator Antonio Paolo Russo (University Rovira i Virgili)

15.00 – Keynote Presentation by Dimitri Ioannides (Mid Sweden University), followed by debate moderated by A. Russo. This session will also be broadcasted as an ATLAS SIG Webminar.

16.15 – 1^o session: Challenges in Mobilities Research: Methods and Applications (I)

Elisa Bruttomesso: Intentional camera movement photographs as part of a multisensory process in tourist experience.

Teresa Villace Molinero, Pilar Talón Ballestero, Juan José Fernández Muñoz, Ana Muñoz Mazón: A Predictive analysis of the recommendation to visit Museums and Exhibition Halls.

Fiammetta Brandajs, Antonio Paolo Russo: Exclusionary pedestrian behaviour? Evidence from space use analysis of cruise tourism in Barcelona.

17.15 – Coffee break

17.30 – 2^o session: Challenges in Mobilities Research: Methods and Applications (II)

Albert Arias Sans, Brais Estévez Vilariño: Gentrification on the move.

Antonio Russo, Elsa Soro, Alessandro Scarnato: Shifting discourses in Barcelona's tourism politics.

Pablo Diaz Rodriguez: A Connectivity model to formalise the concept of socio-ecosystem in Fuerteventura (Canary Isles)

20.30 – Social dinner event at place t.b.c.

18th October 2017

09.00 – 3^o session - Dissonant performances in tourist places: resignifying space

Xavier Michel, Vincent Andreu-Boussut: Environmental experience and knowledge lead to different mobilities in natural sites.

Alessia Mariotti, Yoel Mansfeld: Contested Tourist Space and Dissonant Heritage: The Case of Predappio, Italy.

Valérian Geffroy: Questioning the sense of mobilities : hybrid practices of sport and tourism.

Alexandra Witte: Hiking Performances on China's Tea Horse Road: 'Is this real?'

Szilvia Gyimóthy: The proper art of playing in the snow.

Maria Luciana de Almeida, Marisa P. de Brito: The revitalization of obsolete infrastructures into leisure destinations.

Yanchun Huang: The Strategies for Joint Development of Red Tourism and Its Internationalization in China.

11.15 – Coffee break

11.30 – 4^o session - 'Hosts and guests' in the age of mobilities: practices of cosmopolitanism

Fabiola Mancinelli: Floating communities: practices of embedded cosmopolitanism in the experience of digital nomads.

Isabel Paulino, Lluís Prats, Daniel Blasco: Rethinking tourism destinations from tourists' perspective: the case of Natural Parks.

Min (Lucy) Zhang: Boundaries vs. Borders: Tourism as an Agent of Transformation from Ethnic Cultural Representation to Place Identity.

Alan Quaglieri Domínguez: Beyond the collaborative rhetoric: Airbnb as fuel for the neoliberal city. The case of Barcelona.

Selene Orellana, Maria Eugenia Altamirano, Tayna Candido: Making slum tourism in Rio's favelas sustainable: Challenges and controversy.

Gonçalo Marques: Vinho Verde as an identity product in Northern Portugal's tourism

13.45 – Buffet lunch

15.00 – Open debate: key insights from the sessions and advances in postdisciplinary research on tourism mobilities, place and performance, introduced and moderated by Javier Caletrío (Mobile Lives Forum)

16.30 – Organisational Meeting of the SIG 'Space, place and mobilities in tourism'

17.30 – Closure